

VALLEY LIFE ATHLETICS

PARENT CONDUCT CONTRACT (Version A)

To protect the safety, reputation, and integrity of Valley Life Athletics, all parents, guardians, and spectators MUST follow this code of conduct. Violations will result in immediate consequences.

ZERO-TOLERANCE BEHAVIOR RULES

1. No Fighting

No physical altercations of any kind. No pushing, shoving, squaring-up, or physical intimidation.

2. No Threats or Aggressive Behavior

No threatening coaches, referees, players, other parents, or staff. No hostile yelling, cussing, or confrontational actions.

3. No Behavior That Leads Toward a Fight

No instigating drama. No approaching others aggressively. No escalating arguments. No disrespectful sideline behavior.

4. Respect All Staff & Officials

All coaches and refs must be treated respectfully. Decisions made by staff are final.

5. You Are Responsible for Your Guests

Anyone you bring—family, friends, supporters—is held to this same standard.

CONSEQUENCES

ANY violation of this contract may result in:

- Immediate removal from the premises
- Suspension from practices, games, or events
- Expulsion of BOTH the parent AND the child from the league
- No refund of any fees paid

Valley Life Athletics leadership has full authority to enforce these consequences without warning.

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Athlete Name: _____

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____

Date: _____

Valley Life Athletics reserves the right to add or enforce rules needed to maintain a safe environment.